Letter from the Minister

email: tim.morris@methodist.org.uk

Dear Friends,

“Eggs and ashes”

The whole of this month sees us on a journey. From Shrovetide right through to Easter Day, we are on a journey from pancakes to Palm Crosses and from ashes to hot cross buns. These symbols remind us, in an unspoken way, of the journey which Lent takes us on. As we “give up”, we remember the one who “gave all”.

Our places of worship are filled with visible signs too, that we are on a journey together through a particular season of the Christian year. Many a church won't be having flowers on the altar until Easter; others will have a garden tomb displayed; some will have a cross, draped, as appropriate, near Easter in purple cloth and crown of thorns, then a white cloth, or adorned with flowers for Easter.

These symbols have a great impact for all to see. However, the witness in our lives to the journey we are on is as important. They can show the nature of that journey and the God we travel with. The journey through Lent though is not just about the outward and visible signs that we cherish. It's actually about what's going on inside us.

I hope and pray that through our worship, housegroups, Lent lunches, Lent courses and privately, other people will witness the journey we are on and enable us to invite them too, to reflect on the season of Lent – the offering of God's love and forgiveness, friendship and grace.

May this Lenten season prepare us for the celebration of Easter this year.

Your minister and friend,

Tim Morris

Ashbourne Church Family News

“Because of the Lord’s great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness.”
Lamentations 3 v 22-23

Congratulations to Ruth & Richard Barratt on the birth of their grandson Alexander on 29th January, a son for Rachel & Richard Myatt. Congratulations to Kath and John Brown who celebrate their Ruby Wedding Anniversary on 29th February.

There are those who remain unwell and would still value our prayers: David Franklin, Betty Hadley, Barbara Hollands, Ann Overton, Carole Thorpe, Jenny Waring and Sally Wall. Please remember all those who care for others and those you know who are waiting for tests, results and appointments - as the very waiting can be stressful. We keep praying for those we know who need prayer, because we believe that God will make a difference in their lives and bring his peace.

Last month I mentioned our young people who are working towards external exams, and this month I want to add those who are just getting on with life in school. If you feel that you are at home a lot, for one reason or another, then you may feel God prompting you to pray by name for some of these young people: William and Daniel Alton; Jonathan and Sophie Baker; Darcey Dawson; Bronwen, Andrew and Caitlin Flux; Sam, Isaac and William Glossop; Ethan and Wesley Green; Rosanna and Esmee Haines; Matthew and Heidi Jeffrey-Walker; Philip Lewer, Christian Mallard and Joseph Thrupp.

There are older people in our congregation who are hoping to move home soon, so we can pray for final details of negotiations and all that is involved in a move. We are grateful for those giving practical help.

Prayer continues in the vestry on a Thursday at 9.30am for an hour, but just drop in for a shorter time if that suits you. After worship on a Sunday, there are people available to pray with or for you.

Pray for Ruth Barratt, Chaplain to Businesses in Ashbourne, and for Elizabeth Spencer, part of the Chaplaincy team at the Royal Derby Hospital. If you are in hospital and need a visit, you or a friend could let her know on 348482. Elizabeth is also a visitor at St Oswald’s Hospital in Ashbourne.

Joyce Odell Pastoral Secretary 08.02.20

Pastoral Carers – Advance notice

I have been able to arrange an Open Meeting for Tuesday 23 June. This will commence with a shared meal at 7.00pm and will be followed by a talk/discussion by Rebecca Byass, District Wellbeing Officer, Nottingham & Derby Methodist District.

She is entitling her talk “The Ultimate Why - Exploring our hopes for pastoral care in church” and will focus on how we can better understand the needs of each other as we are all so different.

Please make a note of the date and time.

Coffee Morning

There will be a Coffee Morning at Kirk Ireton Methodist Chapel, Coffin Lane, Kirk Ireton DE6 3JW on Saturday 7th March – 10am-12noon

All are welcome!

Do it for Lent, then do it for life

Giving up something like chocolate is good for sure, but at the end of the time, you will indulge once more. So, do something in Lent that will change your ways, and then keep doing it, for the rest of your days.

Only you will know the things you need change: the areas of your life you need to re-arrange.
Only you will know the things you should do: the things you could do better, there may be a few.

For forty days set something as your goal: to improve or to grow the inner workings of your soul. And when the forty days have been and gone, don't stop there, but just carry on.

“God in Love Unites Us”

In February, two meetings were arranged by the Ashbourne Circuit to consider and discuss the report considered last July by the Methodist Conference, regarding “Marriage and Relationships”. These were attended by about 70 people in total.

At the end of these meetings, each participant was given a feedback sheet on which to record their reactions. A summary of these views will be given to members of the Circuit who will attend the District Synod when it meets on Saturday 25th April, and will be published in the April edition of Connections.

Discussion at the meetings reflected the differing views on the proposals expressed throughout the Methodist Church. The report itself acknowledges these differences and addresses the need to respect contradictory convictions:

According to Paul (Romans 14:1-15.7), when Christians hold opposing convictions on the same issues, all equally are accountable to God, each must act according to their conscience and none must behave in a way which damages or even destroys the faith of another. The summary in Romans 14:13 of Paul’s advice on how to live with contradictory convictions amongst the members of the body of Christ still stands: “Let us therefore no longer pass judgement on one another, but resolve instead never to put a stumbling block or hindrance in the way of one another”. (4.3.21)

Documents relating to this subject are still available: the Report of the Task Group, which was commended by the Methodist Conference, and an unofficial précis which is intended to be a fair summary of the report. In case of difficulty, please contact: dysters@tiscali.co.uk or 344086.

If you wish to extend your reading further, other documents are available from organisations related to the Methodist Church which represent different viewpoints. These can be accessed by googling the following organisations:

Methodist Evangelicals Together God in Love

For an alternative viewpoint:

MISSION MATTERS

Everyone is equal in the sight of God. Yet we live in a world where poverty still persists. Poverty is an outrage against humanity. It robs people of their dignity and lets injustice thrive. But together we have the power to transform lives.

For over 70 years, Christian Aid has been standing with the poorest of our neighbours. We work in 37 countries, with people of all faiths and none, to stand up for dignity, equality and justice.

Together we can create a world where everyone can live a full life, free from poverty. Our voices and actions are stronger together. And with your help, we can make an even bigger difference.

Ashbourne Churches Together have been supporting Christian Aid for many years, through a cake stall at the Tissington Well Dressings and a door-to-door collection during Christian Aid Week.

We need help with both of these again this year. We need someone to take delivery of cakes during the period of the well dressings, and liaise with the volunteer bakers to make sure we have enough for each day. The Well Dressings are 21st-25th May.

We also need door-to-door collectors for Christian Aid week which is 12th-18th May. Some people find this task easy and enjoy meeting people who have their envelope ready and are grateful for the opportunity to give. Others find it more difficult but go out of their comfort zone to do it. We generally raise around £2,000 which is more than we could raise from any other event, so it's well worth it.

If you feel you can help with either of these, please speak to Catherine Green 07531 655998 or catherine@greenofashbourne.plus.com

Tissington Well Dressings

Thursday 21st May – Monday 25th May

Each year the ACT One World Group organises a stall at the Tissington Well Dressings. We sell slices of cake to the visitors and some Traidcraft goods. The proceeds go to Christian Aid.

This year, since it is Bank Holiday Monday, we are there from Thursday 21st – Monday 25th May, one day more than usual. We hope you will help again and we would also welcome new people. We need at least 2 people at a time in 2 hour stints from 10.00 am to 4.00 pm. That makes 6 or more people per day and so a minimum of 30 people over the 5 days!

PLEASE CAN YOU HELP? No previous experience necessary.

Please consider carefully and prayerfully whether you could spare a couple of hours (or more!!) to help. It is not onerous work and it is a good opportunity to meet both visitors to the Well Dressings and your fellow helpers from other churches or none.

We also need people to bake tray bakes and cakes for the stall that we can sell by the slice, not as whole cakes. We sell between 200 and 300 slices per day!! It would be helpful if cakes and tray bakes were not cut up in advance, then we can ensure consistency in size of portions.

After Easter there will be lists in the various churches for staffing the stall and for providing cakes. Please try and help this very worthwhile event.

Renewal and Rebellion

Faith, Economy and Climate

7 March 2020

The Riverside Centre, Derby

Our environment is in crisis, inequality is growing, and yet our economic system seems fixated on endless growth, while politics is paralysed and coarsened by division.

How do we need to change our political and economic assumptions in order to meet these challenges? How can we model new ways of living ourselves, and as churches? How does our hope in God's future empower us to live a hopeful, abundant life on a finite planet?

The Joint Public Issues Team (JPIT) is made up of the Baptist Union, the Church of Scotland, the Methodist Church and the United Reformed Church, working together for peace and justice.

Renewal and Rebellion: faith, economy and climate is JPIT's 2020 national conference. It invites you to join in looking at the big challenges we all face – rethinking economic structures and taking radical steps towards climate justice, and how we can all act – in faith, for people and for planet.

Speakers include:

Ed Miliband, MP and co-host of 'Reasons to be Cheerful' podcast

Katherine Trebeck, Wellbeing Economist

Christine Allen, Director of CAFOD

Anthony Reddie, Director of Oxford Centre for Religion and Culture

Ross Greer, Green MSP

Revd Lucy Berry, Poet-in-Residence

Sat 7th March 9:45am–4.00pm The Riverside Centre, Derby, DE24 8HY

Tickets £10.00 (unwaged free if booked before 7th

Climate: Why Change?

Join us for an interesting evening exploring the impact our actions can have – and ask questions about whether we need to change.

7.30pm on Friday 27th March at St Oswald's Church Hall, Ashbourne.

With special guest speakers:

Carry Somers, founder of Fashion Revolution, a global organisation whose vision is a fashion industry that values people, the environment, creativity and profit in equal measure

Godfrey Meynell, owner of Meynell Langley Estate and volunteer speaker for Christian Aid

Drinks and snacks will be served.

This is a free event, organised by Ashbourne Churches Together One World Group. Donations can be made to cover the cost of the event. Any surplus will be shared between Christian Aid and the Fashion Revolution Foundation.

Cliff Festival | Global Vision

Friday 22 – Monday 25 May 2020

As two friends walked the 8½ miles from Jerusalem to Emmaus they chatted together about what they had experienced in Jerusalem. They meet another traveller who joins them on their journey and in their conversation. It's only when they get to Emmaus and invite their fellow traveller into their home that they realise it's Jesus. Once he has left, the two friends say, 'Didn't we feel on fire as he conversed with us on the road, as he opened up the Scriptures for us?'

I'm a big fan of Christian Festivals as they give us the opportunity to open ourselves to God, as the two friends did on the Emmaus Road, without all the pressures of being part of the local church. These pressures might include focusing on the roles we have, being distracted by other things or the expectations of others. Festivals take us away from these pressures and enable us to be more open to God.

Cliff Festival offers a weekend of Bible study, worship, preaching, music, food and (often) sunshine and aims to engage with people of all ages through a variety of venues, meeting and eating places, activities, seminars and shopping opportunities. A typical day looks like this:

Morning	All Age Worship
	Bible Study	Awesome (5-11s)	Fusion (11-18s)
Afternoon	Workshops	Family activities	Music
Evening	Celebration	Awesome (5-11s)	Fusion (11-18s)
	Music

This year the theme is Global Vision with the majority of Festival being led by our friends from Africa, America and Europe. Bible study will be led by Revd Shane Bishop, the Senior Pastor of Christ Church in Fairview Heights, Illinois where he has been in this role for 22 years, during which time the church has grown from a congregation of 200 to congregations of over 2,500.

There will also be music from Phillipa Hanna, Emmanuel Smith, Billy Jo and Tom Smith and the Soul Survivor Band. More bands and contributors will be announced on the CliffFest Facebook page so have a look!

Festival is reasonably priced with day tickets for adults £20, concessions £13, 16-18s £5 and under 16s are free. Parking is free and you can either buy food on site or bring your own. Tickets can be booked on line at www.cliffcollege.ac.uk/festival or pay on the day.

Last year Margaret and Ken Sharples came for the first time and they reflect on their experience below:

As one-time regular “Spring Harvest-ers”, we really appreciated Cliff Festival on our doorstep as an affordable alternative with no long distance to travel. We enjoyed the sound biblical teaching, the worship and the opportunity to meet people, sharing in fellowship with those from around the country as well as friends from the area.

The programme means that it is possible to go for as long as you wish and pop back home if needed. The food on site is good and of course there’s lots of coffee and chocolate brownies. Altogether inspiring, encouraging and enjoyable. We look forward to this year’s event.

Why not give Cliff Festival a try this year? Have a look at the weather and come and join us for a day – you’ll be really welcome and you’ll find something for everyone. If you want to know more then please have a chat with Jo or me.

Paul Taylor

MHA Boxes

Those with MHA collection boxes, could you please let me have them over the coming weeks for adding up prior to the end of the 2019/2020 financial year. The deadline I have set is Sunday 22nd March, so as to have everything in well before the end of March. If you have trouble getting your box to me, let me know and I will arrange to collect it from you.

Tom Parkinson, Ashbourne Circuit MHA Representative

The courage of Oscar Romero

An Archbishop was presiding at Mass when a hired gunman shot him in the back. That was 40 years ago this month. Archbishop Oscar Romero was the Roman Catholic primate of San Salvador, the capital of El Salvador: a small, populous country in South America with a history of political intrigue, violence and corruption.

The assassin, a professional hit man who has never been caught, was working for an extreme right-wing junta and its supporters, who felt threatened by Romero's sermons and his hugely popular radio broadcasts.

Oscar Romero was not a natural agitator. The emphasis of his ministry had been on personal holiness and he had been slow to draw attention to the unscrupulousness which pervaded his country, but when a socially active priest-friend was murdered, he felt he had to follow the same path. He highlighted the torture of prisoners, the censorship of the press, closure of schools and the plight of the poor.

In 1980 he criticised the United States for their support of the junta. In a sermon on 23rd March 1980 he ordered the army to stop killing people: "In the name of God, and in the name of this suffering people whose cries rise to heaven more loudly each day, I beg you, I implore you, I order you, in the name of God, stop the repression!" That was his death warrant.

The next evening, at Mass in a hospital chapel, Romero had finished his sermon and moved to the altar when a car stopped outside the open door. A gunman got out, aimed his rifle and fired. Romero died instantly. He had said, "As a Christian I do not believe in death without resurrection. If they kill me, I shall arise in the Salvadoran people."

Oscar Romero is commemorated as one of 10 Christian martyrs whose statues adorn the West front of Westminster Abbey. The day of his martyrdom, 24th March, is remembered annually in the Anglican Lectionary, and by the United Nations because of its significance for human rights. In 1997, the Roman Catholic Church made him a Saint.

Did Oscar Romero mix religion with politics? He said, "I want to reaffirm that my sermons are not political. Naturally, they touch on politics, and they touch on the reality of the people, but their aim is to shed light and to tell you what it is that God wants."

The Ven. John Barton, former Archdeacon of Aston

Dear readers

Thank you all for your contributions, including Jacinth Land for her original artwork on the front cover.

We welcome contributions from all our readers regarding church and Circuit events and activities. We also welcome personal stories about your own life: how you came to faith, more recent experiences, answers to prayer, and reviews of books you have found helpful.

It's good to receive reports of recent and forthcoming events, which we always try to publish promptly. It's also useful to have articles which are not time-critical, which we can include when space is available.

If you have an idea but are not sure whether it is suitable, we're always happy to discuss it with you.

It's good to have photos or paintings suitable for the front cover, and photos of church activities, which can either illustrate the text (in black and white) or feature in colour on the back cover.

The purpose of Connections magazine is to share information and ideas in order to help one another to know Christ better and to make him better known. It should reflect what we are doing as a church to bring people to faith and to nurture them in the faith. We welcome any compliments, criticisms or suggestions as to how the magazine could be better.

Next edition

Please send us items for the next edition April 2020, including photos of church activities. We are unable to include items which are copyright unless permission is obtained from the copyright-holder.
