Letter from our Minister – Rev Nicola

Briggs Dear friends

As we move our way through December, gradually opening the doors of our Advent calendars we know there is not long to wait. Very soon, we will be celebrating that Christ has been born. It is the opportunity to sing the final verse of 'O come all ye faithful':

Yea, Lord, we greet Thee, born this happy morning; Jesus, to Thee be all glory given; Word of the Father, now in flesh appearing! O come let us adore Him, O come let us adore Him, O come let us adore Him, Christ the Lord!

Now is the time for our final preparations of Advent. That will mean something different to each of us. Some will be thinking of getting the house decorated, the food ordered, the beds ready for guests. Others will be thinking of writing cards, organising gifts and ensuring no one is forgotten. All of these are important things, but we must not forget to prepare ourselves spiritually to celebrate Christ's birth. When Mary and Joseph were seeking a room in Bethlehem, they were told there was no room for them or their baby. We can use the remainder of the Advent season to ensure that we are not like the guesthouse owners of Bethlehem but instead be sure we are ready to welcome the baby into our world and into our lives.

By spiritually clearing space in our lives in the remainder of Advent, our hearts can be welcoming, and we will be truly ready for Jesus' presence. Will we make the effort to make room for the glory of Jesus Christ this Christmas?

As Issac Watts wrote:

Joy to the world; the Lord is come;

Let Earth receive her King;

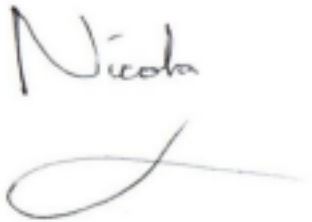

Let ev'ry heart prepare him room,

And heav'n and nature sing...

I pray that across the Ashbourne One Church Circuit and beyond we will be preparing our hearts to once again make room in our lives for the Christ-child this Christmas.

Chris and I wish you all a holy Christmas and a peace filled New Year.

The Chapel has been decorated for the Christmas season – see photos later in this magazine – please make an effort to call in and take some time for reflection.

Announcement from the Ashbourne One Church Circuit Leadership Team

We are pleased to announce in this month's Connections magazine that a new Circuit Administrator has been appointed. Cath Patterson, a member at Ashbourne, was selected following a rigorous appointment process. We look forward to Cath joining us and bringing her administrative gifts and skills to the team. We are sure you will all make her welcome in this role. Cath will start work in January, exact date to be finalised. Thank you to all those who have supported us by your prayers and taken on various tasks in recent months.

Revd Nicola, Gareth, Jacqui, Ken and Peter

Mince Pies at The Manse

Thank you to all those who dropped into the manse recently for a lovely time of fellowship. We are pleased to say that £120 was raised in donations and these will be shared between the Scoliosis Support & Research and Derby City Mission. Nicola and Chris.

Church Family News January 2026

As the new year will soon be upon us, I have found myself reflecting on all the things that have happened in 2025. Many have been joyful events, others have been challenging but rewarding, and some have been more difficult to face.

Now is also the time to look forward to both the opportunities and challenges that the new year might bring. One of the most significant being our return to Church premises in Ashbourne, once the redevelopment is complete. There will be lots of new ventures too, how exciting!

Quite a few members of our One Church Circuit are in need of prayers. As I write, please remember in your prayers Brian H and Diane P, who are both poorly in hospital. Also, please continue to pray for those we know who are ill, anxious about test results, undergoing or waiting for treatment and those who are facing difficult and trying times. These include Vera B, Gwen & Dennis F, Margaret He, Ruth L, Kay O and Elizabeth S.

Sadly, we lost two members of our church family just before Christmas. We pray for Sue L and her family, following the sudden death of Rev David on 3 December. Also, for the family of Beryl P, who passed away on 7 December, just days before her 99th birthday.

Since the last edition of Connections, Sue & Ken M have moved to be nearer to their family. We hope they have settled into their new home in Nottinghamshire. We also pray for those who are selling their homes and hoping to move in the near future. We wish them all the best with their moves.

Wendy Haslam (Pastoral Secretary) 14.12.25

"Because of the LORD's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness".

Lamentations 3:22-23

Are you new(ish) to Ashbourne Methodist Church?

It has been wonderful to welcome many new people to our church in recent months. If you are new(ish), you are invited to join us to a welcome event for a chance to share a meal, meet other new people, and hear a bit more about our church's vision.

Sunday 11th January, lunchtime. Please RSVP to Stuart Green, with any dietary requirements: 01335 300338 or stuart@birchlodge.uk

Recognition of Local Preachers

At our service on 9th November, we recognised three Local Preachers who have each served in that role for 50 years.

Cathy Stubbs, Derek Horsman, and Allan Shaw were accredited as Local Preachers in 1975 and have preached in many churches over the years, sharing God's good news with thousands of people. Derek has shared his story of his journey to becoming a Local Preacher. Cath Patterson

MY JOURNEY TO LOCAL PREACHING

First of all, I have to say that from my teenage years, I was totally opposed to religion. This was because of the fact that my father was a Jehovah's Witness, while my mother had no interest whatever in the 'belief'. This led to frequent disagreements and arguments, due to the excessive amounts of his spare time he devoted to it –

Sunday mornings on the door-to-door work, three evening meetings a week (Sundays, Tuesdays and Thursdays) and sometimes Saturday afternoons distributing the 'Watchtower' magazines in the town where we lived.

Observing this state of affairs turned me off me off 'religion' in general, but following my marriage to Jean in 1954, whose father's family were active Methodists, I experienced a different side of religious activity and experience, which I found very attractive and meaningful.

Then, in the early 1960s, our two children were born and were baptised in Methodist chapels, and again I experienced the caring aspect of Christianity.

When the children were still young, Jean began attending the evening service of the local Methodist chapel in Whitwick, while I did the babysitting. Then in 1966/67 a new Methodist Church, serving an expanding house-building area, opened, with a new, young probationer minister (Rev Trevor Lockwood). Rev Lockwood visited us and led house groups which I was asked to attend to discuss faith and ask questions which, eventually led to me attending morning and evening services.

I cannot recall any moment of sudden 'conversion' - rather a gradual realisation of the truth and meaning of Christianity and the central place of Jesus, so that in 1968 I became a member of the church and subsequently volunteered as a Sunday School teacher.

Eventually, my activities and involvement became known to the Circuit Superintendent, who asked me to consider the call to preach. This led to preaching and worship studies, culminating in 1975 to being accredited as a Local Preacher in the Coalville Circuit.

From that time, I preached regularly across the circuit and eventually in the combined Coalville and Ashby Circuit, including the period when the Rev Harry Jones moved from Ashbourne to Ashby. I also served for a number of years as Circuit Local Preachers Tutor, a privilege in which I learned a great deal about the variety of experiences that fellow preachers had in their own journeys.

However, problems with my mobility intervened, and I found standing unaided difficult, and reluctantly and regrettably I had to cease my preaching commitments about 15 years ago. However, I will be ever grateful for the encouragement and support that I have received from ministers, current leaders, connexional local preacher officers and, not least, the Methodist people, to whom I have had the privilege to lead in worship of our almighty and wonderful heavenly Father and of his son, our Lord Jesus Christ.

To Him be the glory

Christmas Thank You's

Dear Auntie

Oh , what a nice jumper

I've always adored powder blue

And fancy you thinking of Orange and pink

For the stripes

How clever of you!

Dear Uncle

The soap is

Terrific

So

Useful

And such a kind thought and

And how did you guess that

I'd just used the last of

The soap last Christmas brought

Dear Gran

Many thanks for the hankies
Now I really can't wait for the flue
And the daisies embroidered
In red round the 'M'
For Michael
How thoughtful of you

Dear Cousin
What socks¹
And the same sort you wear
So you must be
The last word in stgyle
And I'm certain your right that the luminous green Will make me stand out a mile.

Dear Sister
I quite understand your concern
It's a risk sending jam in the post
But I think I've pulled out
All the big bits of
Of glass

So it won't taste too sharp
Spread on toast
Dear Grandad
Don't fret
I'm delighted
So don't think your gift will offend
I'm not at all hurt
That you gave up this year
And just sent me
A fiver
To spend

FUNDING STATUS UPDATE – 1ST DECEMBER 2025

We thank you for your continued valuable contributions and prayers towards the Link fundraising project. It is an on-going challenge, but we strive, with God's help, to achieve our target.

We continue to research grant opportunities and are seeking a professional fundraiser, at minimum or no cost, to enquire whether we have missed any opportunities.

Some significant financial contributions have been made over the last month from church members, and there have been a number of donations from external sources.

We have now secured over £1.4m against our Matched Funding target of £2.1m. We continue to work hard to reduce the amount we have to borrow from our MCA loan facility. The need to draw down the loan will depend on HMRC's response to our VAT submission. It is hoped that we won't need to access the loan facility until spring 2026.

We continue to welcome donations as was presented at Rev. Nicola's Legacy service in August.

Thank you again for all your support and prayers.

Do get in touch with any of the Link team if you would like further information.

Lent Readings Booklet 2026

Each Lent many of us follow books of Lent readings for daily devotions.

In 2026 we're hoping to have our own booklet of readings with reflections from members of the One Church Circuit

Our aim is to ask individuals or even groups to reflect on one of forty short readings (we'll allocate readings) and to write just a few paragraphs with thoughts inspired by the reading. And if you'd like to add a line or two of prayer then that would be lovely.

Scripture isn't just for 'other people' to think and write about – it belongs to all of us! This is a chance for us to hear one another's voices and to explore the breadth of faith and insight that we have between us.

Thank you to everyone who has signed up already.

If you'd like to take part please contact Stuart Green, Wendy Haslam or Fiona Green.

MR RAY JONES ~ A TRIBUTE.

It was with sadness that I heard of the passing of Mr Ray Jones recently, and could not let the occasion pass without a small tribute.

I have to admit that my knowledge of Ray was from the brief meetings at the Parish and Methodist Churches in Brailsford, and, from the occasional meetings with him when assisting Enid at some funerals that were held at Ashbourne Methodist Church. So, my thoughts are entirely based on those time of meeting him. Others may have a different view, but that's for them to say.

My mind went back to those short meetings, and how superbly those times of sadness went so well led by Ray and his colleagues, who cared for those of our friends who had passed on, and, especially in the love and care that we found in the passing of Ann's parents Geoffrey and Jessica. Those times are long ago, but we remember, even today, that we found "care" was at the heart of his ethos to those that we loved.

I had heard recently that he was known for being good at the local pantomime as a "Dame", and I am sad to say, I never had the chance to see him in that role, but, I am sure that too would have been done with the professionalism that Ray did everything.

I was sad to hear that the latter part of his life was not a good one, for him and for his family. I believe he was not the man his family or friends knew, as that terrible disease took hold of his mind and of his life.

I will not dwell on those latter days, but, instead, remember the good times. I will remember with joy, our meetings, and his friendly greeting, his care and his love and that is the memory of Ray that I will cherish as long as I live.

OPEN THE BOOK

It was lovely to invite Margaret and David to join the team for coffee after the Nativity story at Ilam School. It also gave us the opportunity to present Margaret with a 'Thank You' certificate from Open the Book for leading our team for eighteen years and for the team to acknowledge the commitment and contribution she has given to liaising with schools, planning presentations and costume making. It is a well deserved recognition of all that she has given in guiding and supporting the team over the years.

ROUND THE BACK

The extended Open the Book team were busy from 26 November until 3 December, going 'on tour' visiting local schools with this year's nativity play, 'Round the Back'

It is the story of a grumpy innkeeper who gets no sleep on Christmas night because lots of visitors keep waking him up asking for somewhere to stay. They all end up in the stable worshipping the baby king and the birth of Jesus changes the innkeeper's life forever.

It has been a privilege to visit 12 schools and present the gospel to 283 children. The staff were very appreciative of our time and efforts and feedback has been really positive. One school said the children loved watching the innkeeper, seeing the baby and singing the songs. Another wrote: " I just wanted to say thanks again to you and your wonderful team for this morning. The children (and adults!) all really enjoyed it. We really appreciate all the hard work and preparation that must have gone into getting everything ready. It was a lovely way to teach the children about the Christmas story! "

Many thanks to the Open the Book team and their advent helpers: Joy Watts, Sue Ffoulkes, Mary Hellyer, Tricia Barclay, Rosemary Webb, Ruth Mallard, Tim Dutton, Susan McKeown, Judith Starkie, Helen Barker, Val Rutledge, Enid Stubbs, David Popham, Helen Walker, Sally Lewis, Clare Sales and Nicola Briggs.

REV DAVID GEORGE HARVEY LEESE

Born Sept 1949 Reborn in Christ Jan 1972 In Glory
Dec 2025 David wrote these words ages ago, completed by myself as I write, 14th December 2025.
To say he 'lived life to the full' is a massive understatement. He had only one speed - FAST. If anything needed doing - he did it straightaway.

He often said that he'd had two careers, both of which he absolutely loved; 30 years of management in acute hospitals, and 21 years as a stationed Methodist Minister. From 1995-2000 he did both roles, serving as a Minister in Local Appointment in the Bourne circuit, Lincolnshire. David was first and foremost a preacher of the Gospel. He always began services by saying that it was a pleasure to be in that particular place of worship and his privilege, as always, to preach the word of life / the gospel of Christ. One of his closest ministerial colleagues wrote this week that he was 'a spirit filled communicator and true servant as one of Mr Wesley's preachers.' The congregation at Nether Heage Methodist chapel, where he most recently led worship on Sunday 5th October, remember him for his
'props and energetic performance.'

He was also passionate about pastoral care, firm in the belief that it was the duty of every Methodist minister to visit each member in their care at least once every year - which he did - as well as supporting anyone anywhere who needed him whenever or wherever that may have been.

Even here in retirement! In these, he leaves two amazing legacies. He was committed to being one of the musicians or the preacher at Brailsford Methodist chapel services, and united services with the Brailsford Benefice. Other Sundays he was out and about preaching in all the surrounding circuits. He rued the demise of Methodist evening services and the singing of the wonderful evening hymns in the Methodist Hymn Book, so I quote from one of his favourites,

'And whene'er in death I slumber Let me rise With the wise, Counted in their number' [John Lannick 1718-1755 MHB 947]

David's sudden, unexpected death has left me brokenhearted. I have lost my best friend, my soulmate, and the most wonderful husband anyone could wish for. We were not merely a couple, we were a team, always supporting each other in whatever we did, both together or separately. He is survived by our three wonderful children and four beautiful grandchildren who are being absolutely amazing in all they are doing with and for me at the present time.

My home is like a florist's shop. I have had to borrow vases and there are countless cards, letters, and emails - all touching and appropriate. I thank you from the bottom of my heart for everything you have done to care for me since David was called home on Wednesday 3rd December. Please don't cross the road away from me, or feel wary of speaking David's name. You may have a memory of which I am unaware and would love to hear.

I am firm in my faith that he has gone to be with his Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ whom he has faithfully served all his life.

I will close with lines from a traditional Methodist hymn and a modern worship song.

'Tis Jesus the first and the last, Whose Spirit will guide us safe home; We'll praise Him for all that is past And trust Him for all that's to come.' [Joseph Hart 1712-1768, MHB 69]

'There is a hope that stands the test of time, That lifts his eyes beyond the beckoning grave, To see the matchless beauty of a day divine When I behold his face! When sufferings cease and sorrows die And every longing satisfied. Then joy unspeakable will flood my soul For I am truly home.' [Stuart Townend 2008]

Yours in Christ

Sue Leese

ShareGift – A pleasant surprise

Looking through my financial accounts recently I noticed that I still held some shares that I had forgotten about. They were worth just over £500 and since they were held through a third party selling them would prove expensive. So, I approached ShareGift, an organisation that would sell the shares for me and donate the proceeds to charity. If the proceeds were more than £500 then I could nominate the charity and I duly nominated our church development account.

Then came the pleasant surprise. Apparently, some people do not nominate a charity and if the proceeds are less than £500 you cannot. This all provides ShareGift with a fund which they use to boost their nominated donations. Our development fund received not £500 but £2,500!!

ShareGift can be contacted through their website www.sharegift.org

Thank you for your support for people affected by leprosy

Thank you for everyone's orders from The Leprosy Mission Shop. We receive commission on all sales, which goes to The Link Project. This Christmas, we raised £138.84 for The Link Project. People also made donations to The Leprosy Mission totalling £51.77. Over the years, this means we have raised £1473.43 for The Link Project and £681.46 for The Leprosy Mission.

The Cornerstone Café – Beth's Kitchen

We're back!

At the end of November we once again moved the Cornerstone Coffee House in two days! We're really grateful to all those who helped us, in so many ways, we couldn't have done it without you! Thank you!

We have been straight into Christmas with the Lantern Parade and Supper Club in our first two weeks. It is great to see so many people in Cornerstone enjoying the new environment.

We have offered a bit of calm each week, working with the experiences of those who have visited Iona over the last couple of years, and Christmas Calm has been welcomed by those who attended.

Our evening of Christmas carols was great - it's so good to sing carols in this informal environment. Thanks to Jonathan and Tim for leading us.

Finally a reminder that we close at 2pm on Christmas Eve and reopen at 8.30am on New Year's Eve.

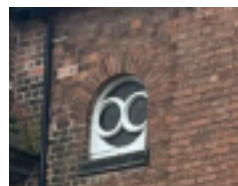

Thanks to all those who have supported us throughout the year, in our various locations. We wish you all a peaceful Christmas and new year.

THE LINK CENTRE & GATEWAY LODGE

Over the coming weeks, you'll begin to see the logo for The Link Centre & Gateway Lodge being used more and more. The logo was developed earlier this year by a professional design agency and was agreed by Church Council.

The inspiration for the logo comes from a window on the church building. The window is on the side of the building facing Station Road and has two circles within another circle. Had you noticed this window before?

The logo itself shows overlapping circles, to suggest the 'links' between people that will happen in The Link Centre & Gateway Lodge.

You may see a different meaning in it? Some people think it looks a bit like a Venn Diagram (as a Christian mathematician from Hull, Stuart thinks that John Venn was a good guy!). Again, the concept of a Venn diagram is about how different groups overlap, which speaks of how different people will meet and interact within The Link Centre.

As well as developing the logo, the design agency provided us guidance on colours and styles for our fliers and websites.

The websites for The Link Centre & Gateway Lodge are now up & running, although we are still checking for any typing errors, so please let us know if you spot anything. Both of these websites, and the church website, use the new design style:

www.ashbournelink.org.uk and www.ashbournegateway.org.uk

Following on from the design work for The Link Centre, we are currently looking at options for a new logo for Ashbourne Methodist Church. We will be seeking feedback in early January from people who worship in Ashbourne and also from members of the public, as it's important that this logo works for outsiders (perhaps even more than for insiders). Look out for information in the New Year.

To the despised and rejected Jesus Said – Follow Me

As Jesus was walking along, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at his Tax Collector's booth. 'Follow me and be my disciple' Jesus said to him. So Matthew got up and followed him.

Later, Matthew invited Jesus and his disciples to his home as dinner guests, along with many tax collectors and other disreputable sinners. But when the Pharisees saw this, they asked his disciples, 'Why does your teacher eat with such scum?'

When Jesus heard this, he said, 'Healthy people do not need a doctor – sick people do’. Then he added, ‘Now go and learn the meaning of Scripture; I want you to show mercy, not offer sacrifices. For I have come to call not those who think they are righteous, but those than know they are sinners.’

Matthew 9:9-13

Twelfth Night

Our Candles, lit, re lit, have gone down now:

There were the dry twigs tipped with buds of fire, But red and white have twisted into air,
The little shadow stills it to and fro.

We draw familiar faces from the wall

But all is part of dismantling dark

Which works upon the heart that must not break, Upon the carried thing that must not fall.

Needles are shivered from the golden bough. Our leaves and paper nothings are decayed

And all amazement of the Phoenix breed

Are cupboarded in dust, dull row on row.

While branchwork set upon a whitened ground Climbs out into a vortex of wild flame,
The substance of this deep Midwinter dream; A scale of ash upon a frozen wind.

Our Candles, lit, re lit, have gone down now; Only the tears, the veils, the hanging tree

Whose burning gauze thins out across the sky, Whose brightness dies to image. And the snow.
